ACTION TAKEN REPORTS
FEEDBACK OF CURRICULUM BY PROFESSIONALS 2022-23

Based on the feedback collected from the professionals on curriculum, the following actions are initiated on curriculum from 2023-24

S.No	Particulars	Action Taken
1	10 per cent of the professionals required in terms of analytical abilities, stimulates the interest and attitude towards Homoeopathy	Faculty are asked to provide more clinical exposure to students in such a way to develop analytical abilities and to develop positive attitude towards homoeopathy
2	Academic Flexibility	Academic flexibility in the existing curriculum is comparatively low. However, flexibility is expected more in the competency based dynamic curriculum from 2022-23 onwards
3	Employability and Entrepreneurship	Additional training are provided both to the BHMS and M.D(Hom.) through capability enhancement programme. Efforts will be initiated to strengthen such activities from 2023-24 onwards.
4	More practical knowledge is required	Faculties are directed to provide more clinical and bed-side training and simulation training to students.
